

Youth in Care Tuition Bursary NEW

Open for Applications

Seneca, in partnership with the Child Welfare Political Action Committee, has launched a special bursary that will pay tuition for current or former youth in extended social care who are pursuing their first postsecondary credential. Thirty bursaries will be awarded starting in fall 2021 and continuing into winter 2022 and onwards.

Criteria to Apply:

- Prospective students must first apply to Seneca through OntarioColleges (OCAS) and receive an offer of admission before applying for the bursary.
- They must be pursuing their first postsecondary credential and apply to full-time studies.
- They must apply to the bursary before starting their studies.
- They must demonstrate financial need and submit an OSAP application every academic year.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):

See our detailed Youth in Care Tuition Bursary FAQs for more information on who can apply, the value and purpose of the bursary and more.

Additional Benefits:

- Bursaries are renewable each academic year until graduation.
- Bursary recipients can be matched with a Seneca staff member who will support them during their studies and help access resources like mentoring, tutoring and academic advising.
